No, all orders are placed on-line and delivered direct to home or office via Federal Express and UPS.

The school receives 10% of each sale.

For example:

Family 1 orders: $120.00 order

School receives: $12.00 share of sale= school donation

If a family would like to place a smaller order than we offer on our website - we encourage families to split an order to insure they receive free shipping!

Note: Orders can only ship to one address to receive free shipping. Families would be responsible in coordinating and placing a group family order.

Can a family order that does not live close?

Yes, with the new online ordering and shipping system all extended family members, friends or fans of Market Day can order and have the items shipped to their home or office. Have them choose your school to support when they place their order! It's easy- your school or non-profit organization will be listed on our registered school list on our website and they will be prompted to choose an organization or school that they want their order to support! Great for Grandparents, Uncles/Aunts, Co-workers-- they can all help you fundraise for your school no matter where they live!

How much is shipping if you order less than $120?

Normal shipping rates will apply to orders less than $120. There is no set price because those orders will depend on the size and weight of your order and zip codes. It is a smarter thing to pair up with a family or friend and order the bundle, so shipping is not an unknown answer.
